

DUTCH PAINTINGS IN THE AGE OF REMBRANDT

from the
Museum of Fine Arts, Boston
A Guided Tour

Tuesday, November 26, 2019
— 3:30 pm sharp —

Saint Louis Art Museum
One Fine Arts Drive, Forest Park | St. Louis, MO 63110
Tour begins and ends in the lobby of the East Building (Taylor Hall)

Optional “Happy Hour” following tour at Pan D’Olive Restaurant
1603 McCausland Av. | St. Louis, MO 63117
(corner of Plateau Avenue)

Commemorate the 350th anniversary of Rembrandt’s death in true artistic fashion at “Dutch Paintings in the Age of Rembrandt.” You’ll find outstanding works by the renowned Dutch painters of the 17th Century.

The exhibit will cover the range of subjects now closely identified with the period. Along with traditional religious and mythological scenes, these artists responded to the taste of the burgeoning middle class, painting ordinary people and activities, Dutch cities, and local landscapes.

SPACE IS LIMITED —RESERVE NOW

RESERVE tickets ($10 each) by contacting: Mimi Stiritz
314-322-8430 | mm.stiritz@gmail.com

SEND checks payable to:
Mimi Stiritz
12 Wydown Terrace | St. Louis, MO 63105

 No tour fee for members of Saint Louis Art Museum, but RESERVATION required; Be sure to mention membership.